RDE is proud of its resource offerings to the community!

RDE Systems has been serving the HIV/AIDS community for over 12 years with innovative, web-based tools and services. The RDE team considers it an honor to help those who help others and has volunteered alongside outreach workers in the field, and beside the desk of government officials, health planners, and medical care providers. As a special thanks for giving, RDE Systems is providing the free Rent Calculator to Ryan White recipients and conference participants.

Check out these other valuable, cost effective, web-based tools and resources that have dramatically improved the role of recipients, providers, health planners, and clients.
